

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST OF THE
OFFICERS OF THE NINETY-FOURTH REGIMENT
“SCOTCH BRIGADE,”

FROM 1800 TO 1869.

BY HENRY STOOKS SMITH.

LONDON:
LONGMANS, GREEN, READER, AND DYER.
1869.

The main object the compiler had in publishing this list was to make more generally known the right of the 94th Regiment to its title, badge, and honours, and he is not aware that that right has ever before been publicly represented.

The colours of the regiment are unadorned by any of the emblems of its services, surely, it only requires a proper representation of the facts of the case, to have them restored. They cannot be denied on the ground that the regiment has been disbanded, or how was it the 18th Hussars, when re-formed in February 1858, had the words "Peninsula" and "Walloo" restored to them, after the regiment had been out of existence for 37 years, whilst the 94th was in that position only 5 years? In August 1861 the 42nd Regiment was permitted to assume its old national title—"The Black Watch"—even after a lapse of one hundred twenty years; and the 70th Regiment has, so late as December 1867, obtained the word "Guadaloupe," fifty-seven years after its services there. If, then, the present little work authenticating these facts should at all conduce to regain for the regiment its long-deferred honours, the compiler will feel highly compensated for his time and trouble. To forward the object, a friend* of the compiler wrote the record of the regiment, which was published in UNITED SERVICE MAGAZINE for October, November, and December 1868, and which has been favoured with commendation from several old officers of the corps.

To the following officers and gentlemen the compiler tenders his best thanks for information they have supplied him with, and particularly to Messrs. Thornton and Rutherford the only officers now living, who served with the "Scotch Brigade" in the Peninsula, and who both reached the age of 80.

Lieut.-General CHARLES GASCOYNE, Colonel of the 89th Regiment.

Lieut.-Colonel WILLIAM HAWLEY FISK, Plymouth Volunteer Rifles.

Accompanied Sir James Craig's expedition to Malta and Naples in 1805, and served in Sir James Keane's Light Battalion. Proceeded thence with the army which took possession of Sicily; served there four years; was present at the capture of the Islands of Iachia and Procida. He joined the 3rd Battalion of his Regt. (the 27th) at Escallio in the north of Portugal in April previous to the campaign of 1813, and having command of the Light Company, he was actively employed previous to and at the battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampeluna, battles of the Pyrenees at the Pass of Roncesvalles, heights of Linzoin, heights above Pampeluna, and the battle of the Nivelle on the 30th July, and pursuit of the enemy until the 6th Aug. 1813; passage of the Bidassoa, storming the heights of Vera. In command of the Light Companies of the right Brigade 4th Division, he commenced the battle of the Nivelle by an attack upon the French advanced redoubt; in storming their main position his horse was killed under him; and in following them up drove them out of the village of St. Pée. He was also employed in the affairs at Garrett's House and near Bayonne on the 10th and 13th Dec., and when the army was in motion to repel the enemy's encroachment upon our winter position; also actively employed upon the heights of Bidassoa. Commanded the above-mentioned Light Companies at the battle of Orthes, battle of Toulouse previous day to which he took possession of the bridge over the river Eres, and the village of Croix d'Orade, which had been captured by a charge of the 18th Hussars. Next morning he moved off his post and covered the advance of the divisions upon Mont Blanc, and subsequently covered the flank movement of the columns to the right of the enemy, and also the advance of the division till it crowned the heights (horse killed under him) he then drove in the enemy's skirmishers, and took up a line to cover the columns till night. After the termination of the Peninsular war he embarked at Bordeaux with the 1st Battalion 27th Regt. for Canada; was present in all the operations on Lake Champlain, and covered the retreat from Plattsburg to Montreal. He was afterwards present at the capture of Paris, and served in France with the Army of Occupation.

the NUMBER which had been EXPECTED by the Tables, and further contrasted with its Exp up to the end of 1859, and with the " Combined experience of Seventeen Offices."*

" I CONFINE myself to the experience of the seventeen Offices published in 1843. A few will suffice to show the particular and general adaptation of this figure to its intended pur

To exhibit the first of these qualities, let it be supposed that the enquirer wishes to co
the Mortality experienced by the respective Offices named, on Lives aged 40 years.

By drawing his finger carefully along the horizontal line 40, to the points where the curves cross the said line, and following with his eye the vertical line at those respective to the top or bottom of the page, he will learn that

The " ROYAL " expected that 1 out of about 80 would die;

But by adjusted experience to 1865, only 1 out of about 109 would die;

And by ditto to 1859 1 " " 104 would die;

Whilst by the combined experience . . 1 " " 97 would die.

Little will be required to show the general adaptation of the Diagram to exhibit the su
the ROYAL in its Mortality, and the BENEFIT thus obtained by THE ASSURER WITH PAR TION OF PROFITS in that Office. I refer here to the fact that every point on the left of the curve, which it must be observed represents the Mortality expected by our Tables, show or less gain according as it is removed from or approaches thereto. Now, as the curve and the one painted red, respectively depicting the adjusted Mortality of the ROYAL up t and up to 1864, are entirely on the left of the @@@ curve, and some portions of them at marked distance, it is at once evident that everything in the past experience of the Co as respects this important subject, has been more favourable than could have been reasonabl far.
